

THIS OPINION IS NOT A PRECEDENT OF THE TTAB

Mailed:
14 November 2007
AD

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

---

Trademark Trial and Appeal Board

---

L. & J.G. Stickley, Inc.
v.
Ronald C. Cosser

---

Cancellation No. 92040202

---

On Request for Reconsideration

---

David P. Miranda of Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C.
for L. & J.G. Stickley, Inc.

Kenneth F. Florek of Hedman & Costigan, P.C. for Ronald C.
Cosser.

---

Before Bucher, Drost and Cataldo, Administrative Trademark Judges.

Opinion by Drost, Administrative Trademark Judge:

On January 11, 2007, the board granted petitioner's (L.
& J.G. Stickley, Inc.) request to cancel respondent's (Ronald C. Cosser) Registration Nos. 2028089 and 2182183 for the marks THE CRAFTSMAN ALS IK KAN and design. Respondent has now requested reconsideration of the board's decision canceling his registrations. Petitioner has filed a response to respondent's request for reconsideration and respondent has submitted a reply to petitioner's opposition.

Cancellation No. 92040202

While we have considered respondent's request for reconsideration, we note, as petitioner has explained, that the request essentially reargues points already addressed in the board's original decision. Therefore, we see no basis to change that decision and respondent's request for reconsideration is DENIED.